Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston Awards Contract

CHARLESTON, S.C. — *BMH Associates, Inc., of Norfolk, Va., is being awarded an $8,033,793 indefinite delivery, indefinite quantity, cost plus fixed fee type contract to provide engineering and technical support services to Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center, Charleston, S.C., for experimentation, exercises, and training tasks. This support includes some of the following areas: Operational Modeling and Simulation, Experimentation Support, C4ISR Interface Support/Joint Semi-Automated Forces Simulation Support, Systems Configuration, Exercise Logistics, Training, and Documentation. These activities support a variety of customers, including Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command, Navy Warfare Development Command (NWDC), and other customers. The contract includes four one-year options, which if exercised, would bring the cumulative value of this contract to $42,339,460. Work will be performed in Charleston, S.C. (40%), NWDC Newport, R.I. (30%), Norfolk, Va. (30%), other DoD and government sites worldwide, and is expected to be completed by October 2004. If all options are exercised, the period of performance will continue through October 2008. Contract funds in the amount of $50,000 will not expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract was competitively procured as a 100% small business set-aside. The Request for Proposal was posted on the SPAWAR Systems Center E-commerce website and three offers were received. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston, S.C., is the contracting activity (N65236-04-D-3831).

BMH Associates, Inc. is a small business.*
