Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

SAN DIEGO — Global InfoTek, Inc. (GITI) of Vienna, Virginia, is being awarded an $18,133,540 Indefinite Delivery, Indefinite Quantity type contract with a cost-plus-fixed-fee pricing arrangement for research of advanced technologies for human and information systems interactions. The contract will provide prototype concepts and technologies in three key areas: Battlespace Knowledge Pipeline Management; Profound Knowledge through Dynamic Visualization; and Enabling Technology for Trans-Physical Teams, using next generation collaboration techniques. This contract contains no options. There is a minimum guarantee of $850,000. Work will be performed in Vienna, Virginia. The period of performance is from November 8, 1999 to November 7, 2004. Contract funds will not expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract was competitively solicited through the Commerce Business Daily on September 8, 1998 under Broad Agency Announcement N66001-98-X-6905. To date 70 white papers have been received and 23 selected for award. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center, San Diego is the contracting activity (N66001-00-D-8501).
