Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

SAN DIEGO — Pacific-Sierra Research Corporation, an operating company of Veridian (Veridian-PSR), of Arlington, Virginia, is being awarded a $39,696,728 indefinite delivery/ indefinite quantity type contract for research and development targeted at critical elements of the nation's information technology infrastructure. The research will span from information collection to human interaction with the information systems infrastructure for large-scale knowledge management applications—specifically information awareness for intelligence warning and crisis mitigation. SRI International, a non-profit research institution located in Menlo Park, California, will be a major subcontractor. This contract contains no options. Work will be performed at the contractor's facility in Arlington, Virginia (70%) and at the subcontractor's facility in Menlo Park, California (30%). The period of performance is from December 20, 1999 through December 19, 2004. Contract funds will not expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract is the result of an acceptable proposal submitted by PSR in response to Broad Agency Announcement (BAA) N66001-98-X-6905 entitled "Advanced Technologies in Human and Information System Interaction." To date, 70 white papers have been received and 24 selected for award. The contracting activity is the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego, CA (N66001-00-D-8502).
